

WE BOUGHT A ZOO

Similar to tic-tac-toe, you must complete three tasks to create a line. Your line can go diagonally, horizontally or vertically but must appear next to each other.

Write a letter from Benjamin or Kelly to the zoo inspector outlining the action you intend to take in order to pass the upcoming inspection. Consider your audience and the purpose of this letter.	Make a multi-level mind map that considers the best way to let people know that the zoo is opening again.	Pretending you are Benjamin, write up a "To Do" list to get the zoo ready for reopening. Be specific in the task list, outlining the steps required to complete each task.
List the short, medium and long term goals for Benjamin Mee once he has purchased Rosemoor Animal Adventure. Identify which of these are personal or organizational goals.	Write a short news story for the Rosemoor Times informing the readers about the grand reopening. Consider the things the news might feature as interesting to consumers and reporting on the responsibility of the zoo.	Make a Pro/Con list for buying the zoo. Think about the reasons Benjamin did buy the zoo, as well as all the reasons he had to not buy it.
Design and create a poster to advertise for the zoo reopening. Remember to consider the target consumers for the zoo. Write 3-4 sentences explaining the design choices you've made.	Write a plan of things the Rosemoor Animal Adventure will need to do in the few days after the opening. Think about their next set of goals, and how they will continue to achieve them.	Write a transcript from a radio interview between Dylan and Rosemoor Radio. Think about the questions he/she will ask Dylan to get the right information for the listeners and about the information Dylan needs to talk about during the interview.
